Membership Form

Our mission is to encourage, educate, learn, share and support calligraphy within our community. We offer an extensive workshop program aimed at all skill levels. Our teachers include internationally renowned calligraphers as well as local talent. We sponsor an annual weekend retreat during February at the Menucha Retreat Center in the beautiful Columbia Gorge. Each year our guild exhibits members' artwork in at least one non-juried show.

Benefits of Membership:

- Priority registration for workshops with local, national, and international calligraphic artists
- Eligibility for scholarships for workshops and retreats
- Participation in members-only calligraphic exhibits
- Opportunity to advertise on the PSC website
- Monthly presentations by local and visiting calligraphers September through May
- Weekend retreats
- Social activities with other calligraphers
- Listing in and copy of our Member Directory

Please fill out this form and return with your dues whether you pay by check or Paypal. This information will be used in the Directory.

Current Members: Please check here if there are no changes to your address and contact info, write your name below and indicate if you wish any phone number or email left out of the directory (DNP).
