PROSPECTUS

- This unjuried exhibit will feature members' calligraphy that explores old scripts, modern/abstract, illuminated and/or illustrated. These are works from your personal scriptorium at home or wherever you do your work.
- Any member may submit 2 works, with no size limitation, however, the largest panels that the art will be mounted are 3'x 7'. Artists of all experience levels are encouraged to participate, artwork is not juried.
- 3-D works are accepted and will be installed in locked display cases. Cases are approximately 6" high, 4' wide, and 2.5' deep.
- Submit high-resolution photos (300dpi jpeg) if you want your work submitted for promotion.
- Art must be framed or mounted ready for hanging. Framed pieces shall have a wire firmly mounted to the frame. D-rings work nicely.
- Any work that fits the theme can be submitted – including pieces previously shown.
- New work is encouraged. There will be two work session opportunities at Laughs Lines & Letters.
- April 20 Work session - Framing hints and some photographing help. The first opportunity to drop off work.
- May 18 Drop off work. Some photography opportunities (if your work is still unframed)
- The author of any quotes shall be cited, providing credit to that artist.
- Submit the information requested in the links below.

Collaborative Alphabet

In addition to your personal pieces, you are invited to participate in a collaborative piece for this exhibition! Each participating member will select an available letter of the alphabet (and numbers if needed) to scribe in any style they choose. Attend a LL&L, member meeting or contact Katrina or Rosemary to pick your letter (early!)Using white or offwhite paper; centrally locate a 2"x2" square inside a 3.5 x 3.5" square piece of paper. Your Letter will NOT be returned to you.
